PINCHOT DECLARES
LIQUOR INTERESTS
DICTATED THE FIGHT AGAINST CANDIDACY

Harrisburg, April 20.—Governor Pinchot, in a statement tonight declared the liquor question was the issue which prompted the announcement yesterday of William F. Vare, Philadelphia political leader, that he will not support the governor for delegate-at-large to the Republican National convention.

The governor expressed resentment at what he termed Representative Vare's effort to drag in and hide behind President Coolidge "whose nomination," he said "nobody questions." At the same time he added "nobody questions that I, as a loyal Republican will support him in the campaign."

Declaring the Philadelphia organization "is regular when liquor is regular—otherwise not," the governor asserted, "it prates about Republican regularity and then like a regiment deserting on the eve of battle breaks with the state organization."

"It marks an honorable contrast," he added, "the state organization stands by its plans and proposes to finish what it has started."

The governor's statement was issued late today as a result of Mr. Vare's announcement yesterday that he could not support the Pennsylvania chief executive as delegate-at-large but would support Ralph Beaver Strassburger, who is opposing the governor for one of the seven places as delegate.

Representative Vare attributed his decision to Governor Pinchot's action in regard to advising the appointment of Francis J. Heney as counsel to the Senate committee investigating the internal revenue bureau.

"I stand for a principle," the governor's statement said, "the principle of honest, straight-forward, effective law enforcement. You know and I know that every bootlegger in Pennsylvania would love to see me bitten. The law is right there."

"I urge every free voter in this commonwealth, every voter who does not take orders, but votes on conscious and principled grounds to get to the polls and sustain the right of the governor to do his duty whether the Philadelphia machine likes it or not. Every believer in law enforcement, every decent citizen ought to go to the polls and stand up and be counted."

"Until the Vare statement was issued I made no campaign. But now I want you to vote for me because the governor has suddenly become to me a lot for decent politics."

Harrisburg, Pa., April 21 (INS.)—In a statement which he termed "not too hot," considering the circumstances, Gov. Pinchot today accepted the challenge of those who are opposing his candidacy for delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention and again insisted that "boozing or no boozing" was responsible for the sudden and unexpected desertion from his support of the Vare forces of Philadelphia, Rep. W. S. Vare, himself a candidate for delegate-at-large in a statement issued on Saturday declared the governor should not be supported by Republican voters although the state Republican organization has approved the State Executive's candidacy.

The governor's statement, the second he has made since Saturday when Congressmen W. S. Vare switched his support from Pinchot to Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Norristown newspaper publisher, is as follows:

"A man is known by his friends and also by his enemies. I am proud of mine."

"With me in this fight for law enforcement are the churches, the women, the Sunday Schools, the civic organizations of men and women that have the interest of the state at heart, the farmers—all the people who"

A STATEMENT TO REPUBLICANS

Howard P. Burns wishes to state emphatically that he is not a candidate for State Committeeman, and the reports that he is a candidate have been made by people who had no authority to speak for him. Mr. Burns also wishes to state that the advertisements put in the papers after his withdrawal as a candidate were inserted without his knowledge and against his wishes.

FATHER OF MURDERED MAN AVENGES
SON'S DEATH BY SHOOTING ACCUSED
MAN AS HE STANDS IN COURT ROOM

Chicago, April 21. (INS.)—Justice Rose died a few minutes later. The slayer was the father of Frank Sexton, slain in Chicago's taxicab war for whose killing Rose was to be tried. The trial had been continued by Judge Hosea W. Wells just before the shooting of Rose.

VARE BELIEVES THAT
GOV. PINCHOT HAS
NO RIGHT TO CALL
HIMSELF REPUBLICAN

Philadelphia, April 21.—Representative W. S. Vare, Republican leader, and brother of the late boss, State Senator Ed Vare, announced Saturday he could not support Gov. Pinchot as a candidate for delegate-at-large at Tuesday's primary because of the Governor's action in advising the appointment of Francis J. Heney to conduct the Senate Committee's investigation of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Mr. Vare announced he would support Ralph Beaver Strassburger of Norristown, who is opposing the Governor. In a formal statement Vare said:

"Republican sentiment in Philadelphia, as it has come to me in the past few days, is strongly against the election of Gov. Pinchot as a delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention."

"This adverse sentiment is based upon emphatic disapproval of the Governor's activities concerning the procuring of attorneys for the Committee of the United States Senate appointed to investigate the Treasury Department, an action regarded by regular Republicans as a gratuitous attack upon Secretary Mellon and the Coolidge Administration."

Strassburger, a wealthy man, supported Hiram W. Johnson for the Presidential nomination four years ago, but is now an avowed Coolidge man.

When the leaders of Pennsylvania made up the ticket for seven delegates at large two months ago, they did not place the Governor's name on it until after several conferences were held, one of which was with the Governor.

About that time the Governor had been mentioned as a possible Presidential candidate. What assurance, if any, the Governor gave the organization leaders was never made public.

When the ticket was made up, including Secretary Mellon, Senators Pepper and Reed Representative Vare State Chairman M. Harry Baker and Mrs. Elizabeth Price Martin of Philadelphia, it was announced the Governor would be support for one of the places.

Immediately thereafter Strassburger announced his candidacy in opposition to the Governor, on the ground that the Executive was not entitled to regular Republican support. Saturday's action by Vare is the first break in the plan of the State leaders to support the Governor.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Charles C. Johnson, of Philipsburg, passed away at 8 o'clock, Monday morning April 21 at the State Cottage hospital. Mr. Johnson has been in ill health for several years and underwent an operation on Thursday last. Mr. Johnson is well known in Clearfield, having lived here many years. Funeral notice, later.

SLIGHT FIRE AT SEWER PIPE
WORKS

The fire alarm was sounded at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon for a slight fire which broke out at the sewer pipe works just below the Fourth Ward. The firemen made their usual prompt response but the men at the plant had the fire under control when they arrived. The damage was very slight.

DR. BURR BELIEVES
THAW IS DANGEROUS

Philadelphia, April 21.—"Harry K. Thaw, in my opinion has not been restored to a normal state of mind. If released, I believe he would again commit some abnormal act."

Dr. Charles W. Burr, of Philadelphia, specialist in mental and nervous diseases in the university of Pennsylvania, made these statements on the witness stand today in the Thaw sanity trial.

Dr. Burr was the first witness.

Coolidge And Loyalty
To Party Only Issues
Says Mr. Strassburger

Norristown, Pa., April 21 (INS.)—Ralph Beaver Strassburger, candidate for delegate at large on the Republican ticket made the following statement today.

"It is now generally recognized that the eyes of the nation will be turned toward Pennsylvania in the primary contest which closes Tuesday evening."

The question and the only one at issue is whether or not the K. K. party can stand the onslaughts of disloyalty within its ranks and permit the Couzens, Brookharts, the LaFollettes and the Pinchots to exceed the bounds of all decency both ethically and morally and to secretly plot against the party welfare in collusion with Democrats. Not only Pennsylvania but the entire country knows that the action of Governor Pinchot in secretly suggesting and conniving in the employment of Francis J. Heney, a Democratic lawyer, to undermine Secretary Mellon and indirectly to attack President Coolidge and his administration was done while he was professing entire accord and support of the Republican party. When Gov. Pinchot's action was fortunately bared to the Republican leaders of the state and nation they naturally shrunk from him in disgust."

"Because of this disapproval another issue is dragged in by Gov. Pinchot to hide the real question before the royal Republicans. He avoids any discussion of his act and he again fails to state definitely that he is for Coolidge's administration. I have submitted my candidacy to the Republicans of this state on one and only one issue and that is my pledged support to President Coolidge, his administration and the principles of the Republican party."

Thaw Trial Coming To A Close; His Attorney
Puts Case To The Jury

Philadelphia, April 21.—Indications that the insanity trial of Harry K. Thaw was rapidly nearing a close came this afternoon at 1:25 when attorneys opposing the release of Thaw from Kirkbride's asylum announced they had rested their case.

It was indicated at this time that Thaw would not be recalled to the stand and that Evelyn Nesbit would not testify.

Shortly before 2 o'clock, former Judge John M. Patterson of Thaw's counsel, suddenly turned to the jury and began summoning up his case.

He warned the jurors they must not be swayed by any personal likes or dislikes they may have formed for Thaw; that the question of money should not prejudice them and that they shall not be influenced by what they have read in the newspapers.

"No power on earth," he declared, "can justify keep a sane man in an asylum after he has recovered his normal faculties."

He closed his case by asking the jury to return a verdict of "not guilty."

HIKED TO CAMP SITE

A large number of Junior Triangle boys hiked with Physical Director Shannon to the Y. M. C. A. camp site today to look things over and for a little diversion during the Easter vacation. Leaving the Y building this morning at eight o'clock with a program of athletics all arranged for the first convenient open space and with shoe boxes well filled, the boys hit the trail in happy mood, returning during the afternoon. A refreshing plunge in the pool ended the program and the boys left for home to get "something to eat."

Miss Lola McLaughlin has returned to her school after spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLaughlin.

B. M. CLARK AGAIN
AVERS NON-UNION
COAL FIELDS ARE GETTING BUSINESS

Altoona, Pa., April 21, 1924.—Mr. B. M. Clark, President of the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators of Central Pennsylvania, in reply to a statement issued by John Brophy, President of District No. 2 United Mine Workers of America, says:

The statement issued April 4th, setting forth my opinion as to the effect of the renewal of the present wage agreement upon the Central Pennsylvania district for a period of three years, was in response to numerous inquiries from operators and business men who desire an explanation as to why the Operators' Association had signed this agreement in the face of such adverse conditions, the adverse conditions being lower wages in competing fields and resultant lower selling prices for coal from such fields than we can afford to sell our product. It is not my purpose to get into newspaper argument with the officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

The assertion made by the United Mine Workers that "for a remedy they (the operators) suggest the same old panacea they have been offering for the past thirty years—lower wages—is not in accord with the facts. During the past thirty years and since I have been President of the Operators' Association, wages in the union mines have increased over 240 per cent. This speaks for itself."

The present wage agreement, signed for a period of three years will be carried out as faithfully by the operators (unless the United Mine Workers revise it) as all preceding agreements we have signed with them have been carried out during the past twenty-five years. The matter of changes in the contract rests entirely with the Union.

It is my opinion, however, that economic forces operating today will exercise a compelling influence upon the judgment of the United Mine Workers of America just as these forces will influence the judgment of the rest of us during the next three years. The law of supply and demand operates in the coal industry. People will buy coal or any other commodity at the lowest price obtainable. INSURANCE BONUS
CERTAIN TO PASS
BOTH HOUSES NOW

By H. K. REYNOLDS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, April 21.—Not even a Presidential veto stood today in the way of a bonus for veterans of the world war.

The new soldiers bonus bill, providing paid up insurance policies for about four million veterans, having already received the "O. K." of the House, is scheduled for passage by the Senate today or tomorrow by an overwhelming majority—a majority well over the necessary two-thirds required to override a presidential veto.

President Coolidge's attitude toward the bill remained in doubt today, although the last official word from the White House was that he was opposed to a bonus in any form. This announcement however was made at a time when there was no talk of anything except a cash bonus such as President Harding vetoed, and unfirmed reports have been current for several days that Mr. Coolidge will approve the insurance policy plan now supported by administration leaders in Congress.

There is a feeling too that the President's stand has been weakened by the notice served upon him by his lieutenants at the capital that they will be forced to vote against him should he elect to exercise his right to veto. The Republican leaders in the Senate declared that they have enough votes to nullify the veto and they are ready to use them.

Confronted by this situation, many of the Democrats, already pledged to support the bonus, will throw their votes behind the insurance policy bill after making an effort to have the Senate give the veterans straight cash payments as an original plan.

From any angle the President has a delicate, difficult problem to deal with. If he approves the bill he will have to explain why he has changed his mind since declaring he was opposed to the bonus; and if he vetoes it, there is every chance in the world that this veto—the first that he has exercised—will not be sustained by a Republican Congress.

The bill to be passed by the Senate is almost identical with the House bill assuring little delay in conference before the measure reached the White House.

WEEK OF MAY 5
TO 10 IS SET AS
'CLEAN-UP WEEK'

The local Board of Health is arranging for a cleanup week for Clearfield and would like to have every citizen of the town assist in the laudable work of cleaning up the town.

The week of May 5th to 10th has been agreed upon as official cleanup week for the town and the health authorities suggest that it might lighten the burden at that time if every one who can possibly do so would get busy at once and shine up their premises and back yards right now.

These annual cleanup crusades have much to do with keeping the town sanitary and public health conditions so good.

BROOKLYN'S BOBBED HAIR BANDIT
IS CAUGHT IN FLORIDA; CONFESSES
TO MAJORITY OF CRIMES CHARGED

New York, April 21 (INS.)—Police suspicion and as soon as extradition Inspector John D. Coughlin received a "proceedings" can be completed, will be telegraphed early today from New York for trial here.

The telegram to Coughlin stated a arrested Celio Cooney, believed to be the Brooklyn bobbed hair bandit, and in a Jacksonville hospital on April 11 her husband, Edward, Jacksonville (land) died the next day.

The Cooneys were married May months and are charged with several 1923 in Brooklyn. Before her marriage Mrs. Cooney, who is 20, was employee of the National Biscuit Company.

The wire from the detectives, F. S. Gray and Wm. G. Casey, was brief, and related they had arrested the pair after being confronted with an automatic pistol in the hands of the woman and two revolvers which the man produced when they crashed through the door of a rooming house.

The pair were booked on charges of tinge the payroll.

EASTER WORSHIPERS
GET A HARD SHOCK
AT PHILIPSBURG

Lightning Strikes the Steeple On Methodist Church, Hurling Heavy Pieces Onto the Roof.

During the electrical storm which passed over this place about 11 o'clock Sunday morning lightning struck the steeple of the Phillipsburg Methodist church. The steeple was torn apart and badly damaged, its supporting timbers being thrown down onto the church roof and ceiling. The bolt tipped its way through to the ground and while the audience, which jammed the church to capacity fortunately escaped injury many were severely shocked. Much plaster was knocked loose from the ceiling, filling the church with dust and debris.

Rev. Oyer succeeded in calming a audience and while all hurriedly left the edifice panic was averted and all got out safely. After an examination disclosed the extent of the damage and it was found there would be no danger in returning to the church the congregation re-assembled and despite the difficulties and inconvenience Rev. Oyer continued and completed the Easter service.

The steeple was badly damaged and will have to be torn down and rebuilt.

MME. DUSE, NOTED
ITALIAN ACTRESS,
DIED EARLY TODAY

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 21st, 1924 (INS.) The curtain went down for the last time in the life play of Mme. Eleonora Duse, the 64 year old famous Italian tragedienne at 2:30 o'clock this morning, when she died at a local hotel here after suffering two weeks from influenza. Dr. Chas J. Barone and the Honorable Catherine Orsola, the actress's companion, were at the bedside when the end came, according to hotel attaches.

"The Duse's" death was unexpected as it was reported yesterday afternoon that she was somewhat improved.

BANDITS RAID DETROIT BANK

Detroit, Mich., April 21. (INS.)—Bandits here today raided a branch of the Bank of Detroit, making away with at least $3,500 and leaving marks of their visit in shattered plate glass and bullet dotted walls. The raiders fired at a girl clerk when she failed to elevate her hands promptly and other shots were fired through the front windows of the bank as the bandits fled.

FIND BODY OF AGED MAN. SLAIN

Lebanon, Tenn., April 21. (INS.)—Bullet-pierced and spattered with blood, the body of Jack Buchanan, Lebanon's wealthiest citizen, who has been missing since April 9, today was found under a brush pile on a highway near here. The slain man was 72 years old and officers said they have no clue as to perpetrators of the crime.

Yesterdays in spite of the driving rain at the very time of service, the church was overcrowded, many turning away because of the crowd. There was a hush of quiet when the names of 102 persons were called out, and their names were to be received into the church. Nineteen of these were baptized. There were many silent tears of joy at the sight which quickened the great audience. There never has been a more representative body of men, women and young people received into the Church, and the old Presbyterian church has received a great force in these who have come. It was a sight never to be forgotten.

Following the service of reception of the members, fourteen children received the rite of Christian baptism, and who is not touched at the sight of a little child being given into the keeping of Jesus Christ.

The largest number combined at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in fifteen years. The music by the choir both morning and evening was excellent, and everyone was delighted and profuse in their commendation of those who made such music possible.

It was a wonderful day, a never-to-be-forgotten day and the glory of it all is not for men, but for the great Wonderful Son of God the Saviour of us all.

John H. Patchin, of Burnside, candidate for Assemblyman, was in town Saturday looking after his political interest.

Numerous "bob haired bandit" crimes have been charged to Cooney's who were reported to have operated over a wide range of territory.

The most spectacular occurred when the National Biscuit Company offices were held up and an employee was shot but the couple escaped without getting the payroll.

The pair were booked on charges of tinge the payroll.

stand for good government. The constitution of the United States on one side, and liquor on the other. That is the division and that is the choice. "A stay-at-home vote is half a vote for liquor, there are more than enough men and women in Pennsylvania who think right to carry the dry cause to overwhelming victory. If those who believe in a cause will not take trouble to vote for it they will have no right to claim a share when the cause wins out. "There are plenty of us to beat the Leslie and the Vares, and do it easily. But the only way to do it is to go out and vote."

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTES

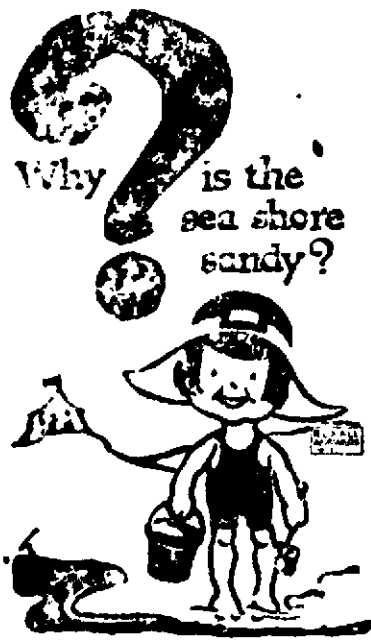

Yesterday was a busy day for pastor and people of St. John's. The first service at six o'clock brought a record-breaking crowd. The capacity of the auditorium was taxed with early worshippers. The service was on the theme of "The Resurrection and the Life." The communion was administered. A pleasing feature of the service was the singing of hymns. A wonderful Easter hymn, "The Lord is Risen Today," was sung at the close of the service as they came out of the church.

PINCHOT DEFEATED

"Pinchot Defeated."

This, we believe, will be the headline broadcast on Wednesday in view of political developments of the last forty-eight hours.

Bill Vare, the man whose influence made Mr. Pinchot the Governor of Pennsylvania and later made it possible, by the exercise of the same powers, to enact the so-called Pinchot dry law, and the Pinchot Code, has definitely refused to go along for Pinchot as a delegate to the national party convention.

It will be recalled that in the heat of the Alter-Pinchot campaign it was generally conceded that the result depended on what Vare of Philadelphia would do. Vare finally came to the aid of his lieutenants to "stay with Pinchot" and was elected by a majority so small that nobody counted to a thank you from the Governor except Mr. Vare. After his election, when the dry bills and the Pinchot organization code were having rough sledding in the legislature, it was Mr. Vare who came to the rescue of Mr. Pinchot. Mr. Vare had a more able friend when "a friend in need is a friend indeed." Today Mr. Pinchot says, "a man who has friends." Does he wish to be judged in the light of his past and acceptances of support from Mr. Vare?

WHY VARE "BOLTED"

It is hardly agree with Mr. Pinchot in his opinion that Mr. Vare bolted the organization slate because of the fact that Mr. Pinchot knows perfectly well that a Republican organization man is favorable to Mr. Pinchot. The Governor has never lost an opportunity to assist the party he claims as his own. He rode into high office. He joins the chorus every time an anvil chorus is organized. He believes that a delegate to a Republican convention is a man having implicit confidence in his own performance and its ideals, quick to obey and loyal to its leadership. Mr. Pinchot's qualifications.

Mr. Pinchot should have done so.

AN UNFORTUNATE SITUATION

Mr. Pinchot, with the assistance of the Philadelphia controlled by Bill Vare and his organization, elected Gifford Pinchot our Governor.

Mr. Pinchot, with the same assistance had placed on the ticket the man who was the bootlegger from the highways of the state and "put up the mess."

Mr. Pinchot diagnosed the ills. The people through their

Progress Editorials for Women

A FORTUNATE FAILURE.

By FLORENCE DAVIES
Chivalry, the scientists tell us, is far older than the memory of man. Long before the days of which we have any record save the mute testimony of four skeletons, three men went to their death in a vain effort to save a woman who had stepped into a quicksand pit.

That, at least, is the theory of the scientists who have found their remains in the California excavations which are interesting the whole world now.

But whatever happened, the effort ended in failure. That much is plain. This was no ordinary burial. However it happened, death overtook the victims in the sand and they leave us only a record of failure.

But in failing these four left us the only record that we have of a bygone age, and, as a theory long held, that America was a barren waste twenty thousand years ago.

Thus, once again, the world is indebted to failure.

And that is often the case, although we find it hard to see that even the failures count toward progress.

Perhaps we are all of us a little too impatient with failure.

I know shallow people who have never really lived because they have always lived successfully.

Things have been too easy. They have gone straight ahead, the path made straight and smooth by the possession of money, brains and a winning personality. They have walked straight into the lap of success.

But in the journey they have missed something. When they arrive, they bring so little with them. With all their getting they have failed to get understanding.

Whereas, the failure in life sometimes leaves more himself and is able to teach others more than the man who arrives easily.

Too many of us who are rather tempted to count ourselves as failures because we have not bigger bank accounts and more fame, want only the kind of success which makes a showing.

But the gentlemen who failed from ten thousand years ago never realized that out of their whole race they would be the only ones who would live in history.

It is a mistake to be too quick to take the world's estimate of success and failure. The man who seems to electoral representatives said to Mr. Pinchot, "You're the doctor."

For two years Mr. Pinchot has had the case. The patient has shown improvement. Give Mr. Pinchot credit for that. Also give him credit for being fearless, courageous and undaunted in his effort to carry out his campaign pledges.

An unfortunate situation develops, however, when Mr. Pinchot shoves the friends of prohibition out in front to protect him from a purely political attack. Mr. Vare comes out against Pinchot, styling him "disloyal to the party" and "treacherous" to Republicanism. He prefers Mr. Strassburger who is loyal even though he is a pronounced "wet." Mr. Vare is not alone in his opinions.

Had Mr. Pinchot been content to work at his job as Governor and not meddle in national affairs he would have taken his rightful place as a national delegate without question from anybody. Already there was a feeling that Mr. Pinchot's job as Governor was far from finished.

We fail to see how a contest over a purely political office can have any effect on law enforcement. Mr. Pinchot has executive powers. He has the laws which were passed at his bidding. Those he refers to as church people will wonder why they are asked to pull his political chestnuts out of the fire.

Milk Is The Business Man's Ideal Lunch-Time Food

It doesn't need an expert to tell any business man that if he overloads his stomach—even partakes of a hearty meal—at lunch-time, he is not as keen mentally as he would like to be until nearly three o'clock. Perhaps you have experienced this and wondered why. There are certain functions of your digestive system which operate the minute your stomach is overloaded which tend to cut down your mental keenness.

The ideal thing to eat at lunch-time is a shredded wheat biscuit and a plenteous amount of milk. There is a combination in the wheat and the milk which will give your body plenty of energy without disturbing your mind and then, if you wish, add a light custard for dessert.

You will find that this will keep you alert every business minute and that the dull listless feeling which you have been experiencing after a hearty mid-day meal, will disappear.

AND SEE THAT THE MILK ON THE WHEAT BISCUIT AND IN THE CUSTARD IS OUR RICH, SAFE AND SURE PASTEURIZED MILK.

GILLETT APPEARS IN PERSON TO DENY SCAIFE'S CHARGE
Washington, April 21.—Rep. Frederick Gillett of Mass., Speaker of the House of Representatives, appeared today before the Wheeler-Brookhart Committee to defend himself against the charge that he received confiscated liquors from department of justice agents.

Gillett branded the story as "absolutely false". He was permitted to cross examine H. L. Scaife, former department of justice agent who had made the charge.

In the Courts

Sheriff Lowell, Constable Nooley, of DuBois, and a couple of state cops, dropped in on Mike Soltak, in the woods near Stronach Saturday last. They found Mike, they say, in the midst of a pair of stulls, 50 gallons of mash and four and one-half gallons of moonshine. Mike is now behind the bars of Billy McCreary's jail charged with violation of the liquor law.

Bootleggers continue to take a chance in Clearfield county, regardless of the fact that Warden Billy McCreary's jail eventually gets them all. This latter fact was made plain to a couple of malefactors Saturday.

B. M. Clark Again Avers Non-Union Fields

January, 1923, Pocahontas loaded 20,725 cars; in January 1924, 108,403 or an increase of 25,678 cars. In January, 1923, Central Pennsylvania loaded 12,570 cars; in January, 1924, 59,402, or a decrease of 13,168 cars. In February, 1923, Pocahontas loaded 32,484 cars; in February, 1924, 117,740, or an increase of 35,256 cars. In February, 1923, Central Pennsylvania loaded 70,006 cars; in February, 1924, 82,757, or a decrease of 7,249 cars. From March 1st to 15th, 1923, Pocahontas loaded 68,745 cars; the same period, 1924, 87,970, or an increase of 19,185 cars. From March 1st to 15th, 1923, Central Pennsylvania loaded 54,748 cars; in the same period, 1924, 40,011, or a decrease of 6,767 cars.

During these months in 1923 business was good in the coal industry and everybody had orders. The results for that period show the relation between these fields when competitive conditions are equal. The increase in car loadings in the Pocahontas district and the decrease in the Central Pennsylvania district show accurately the results of the present competitive situation. In a falling or depressed market up to March 15th, this year, the Pocahontas district has increased its loadings approximately 35 per cent over its loadings during a period of good demand for coal, whereas the Central Pennsylvania district shows a decrease in its loadings in 1924 as compared with 1923 of 15 per cent.

The weekly car loadings in Central Pennsylvania have often exceeded 24,000. For the week ending April 20th the total loadings in the Central Pennsylvania district were but 8,975. The west output on record during a period of no strikes. The business is going to the non-union fields of West Virginia.

These are real facts to which I respectfully call the attention of the United Mine Workers and the business men of Central Pennsylvania.

As I stated before, it is not my intention to get into an argument with United Mine Workers officials in newspapers. I am simply furnishing the further information for the purpose of clearing up any misunderstanding the statement by Mr. Murphy may have created in the minds of the people of Central Pennsylvania.

Say you saw it in The Progress.

KREBS-COLLINS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 9:30 in the parlor of St. John's Lutheran parsonage when Miss Ruth Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krebs became the bride of John Thomas Collins, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collins. The beautiful ring ceremony was used in uniting these two hearts as one. The bride has been a valued employee of the Gearhart Knitting Machine Company while the bridegroom is engaged with his father in the floral business. The ceremony was witnessed by Rev. S. S. Shandis of Gettysburg and Mrs. E. Roy Hansen. After a short wedding trip they will return to their newly furnished home at the Collins home. This house has been remodeled and enlarged and converted into a double house. It is now a very beautiful home and any bride could well feel proud to claim such a home for her own. A host of friends will join in wishing these young people a happy voyage over the sea of life.

What is more, it will be the first time since the "Venus" has been shown here who have grown rusty on their movie.

HARVEY HUGH HAMILTON

A respected citizen of Greenwood Township, was born in Indiana county September 16, 1861. He came to Clearfield county with his parents when a boy.

In 1872 he married M. E. Rawles. Their family consisted of three children: Nell, Edna, and John.

After the death of his wife August 1920, he went with his son Walter and wife to their home, where he spent three very enjoyable winters, making two return trips east to visit his son and daughter. While planning for his third trip back to Canada his condition became alarming. He passed away at his daughter's home, Mrs. Perry Road, March 4th.

Mr. Hamilton was a kind and loving father, always a friend in time of need. He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Perry Road, March 4th.

The children wish to extend thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their help and sympathy during the illness and death of their father.

At a may be gathered from the following: a list of names of those who attended the funeral. Mr. Wintz saw it in use at the Fair, and immediately arranged to bring it to America. By the arrangements of the lighting effect, one of the highlights of the French original has been eliminated.

Nyra Brown and Johnny Getz are the stars of "Venus" and will be supported by many other prominent and popular artists. A rare treat is promised.

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the use of gum chewing brings about a better condition of the teeth."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and will do it. Also it will aid digestion and furnish welcome refreshment to mouth and throat.

Sealed in its purity package, bringing all its original goodness and flavor to you.
